

Transfer Funds from Interbank FX to a Broker

Use this form if the funds are to be transferred from your Interbank FX account to a regulated entity (other than a commercial bank).

Should an account holder(s) choose to transfer their funds from their account at Interbank FX to one of these entities, Interbank FX must first receive proper authorization from the customer and agreement from the sending institution to transfer those funds.

Further credit to the trading account will take place within forty-eight (48) hours of receipt of this completed form.
